 I/We will respect the decisions of the Athletic Director, coaches, assistants and/or authorities of the sports and will not confront them or question their decisions in front of others, especially the team members.

 If I/We should not abide by this Code of Conduct for Redeemer, I/We shall abide by the consequences of our actions.

CONSEQUENCES FOR CODE OF CONDUCT VIOLATION

1st Offense: Athletic Director/Coach will issue a verbal/written warning which is reported to the Administration and School Board at the school.

2nd Offense: The Athletic Director will report offense to the Administration/School Board and a parental suspension of one week from practice and games will be issued.

During a Parental Suspension, the student will need to be supervised during the game.

The parent may pick up or drop off, but cannot stay for the practice or game.

3rd Offense: A third offense will constitute a permanent ban from games and practices until the end of the season.

If the Parent does not abide by the consequence, the child may be asked to leave the team.
